At its heart, the NIRI 9 International Film Festival is more than just a cinematic event—it is a movement. The festival is dedicated to empowering both emerging and established filmmakers by providing them with a stage to present their work to diverse and discerning audiences. Empowering Voices & Inspiring Creativity

The festival's mission extends beyond appreciation of cinema. It is committed to nurturing the next generation of filmmakers, providing them with not just recognition but also mentorship and networking opportunities. By showcasing independent and experimental cinema alongside mainstream productions, NIRI 9 IFF ensures that creativity in all its forms finds a stage to shine.

Through a blend of creativity, technology, and entrepreneurship, the company continues to expand its reach, setting new benchmarks in how entertainment is produced, distributed, and consumed.

NIRI9: North East India's Premier OTT Platform

On January 18, 2021, NIRI MEDIA launched Niri9, the first-ever Over-The-Top (OTT) platform from North East India. With this milestone, the region entered the digital entertainment era on a global stage.

Niri9 was created with a clear and ambitious vision: to serve the diverse linguistic and cultural communities of North East India while showcasing content of substance and finesse from across the globe. Unlike mainstream platforms, Niri9 is deeply rooted in its regional ethos, offering content that resonates with the unique identities, traditions, and social narratives of the North East. At the same time, it provides a global library of films, documentaries, and shows that allow its audiences to connect with cultures beyond their own.

The platform represents more than just streaming services—it is a cultural movement. By offering a space for regional filmmakers, storytellers, and artists to showcase their creativity, Niri9 has redefined the boundaries of representation in digital media.

It empowers local talent, nurtures creativity, and ensures that the diverse voices of the North East are heard and celebrated on both national and international stages.

Diverse and Inclusive Content Library

Niri9 has been meticulously designed to host a wide array of shows, films, documentaries, and original productions that appeal to a broad audience across the country. While mainstream OTT platforms primarily focus on global or pan-Indian languages, Niri9 is dedicated to regional inclusivity.

The platform offers content in multiple languages, including: English, Hindi, Assamese, Bengali, Bhojpuri, Bodo, Mising, Nepali, Manipuri, Odia

This linguistic diversity allows Niri9 to reach audiences that often remain marginalized in the digital entertainment landscape, thereby giving a voice to communities that have rich storytelling traditions but limited representation. By embracing this multilingual approach, Niri9 not only expands its reach but also fulfills its mission of preserving and promoting regional culture through digital entertainment.

This first edition marked not just the beginning of a festival but also the establishment of a cultural movement dedicated to recognizing and uplifting diverse cinematic voices from across the nation.

The First NIRI9 Film Festival was proudly:

- Supported by: All Assam Cine Producers Association and Gamusa (NGO)
- Sponsored by: Numaligarh Refinery Limited (NRL), Sister Masala, and Federal Bank

From this competitive pool, a carefully curated selection of 20 films was chosen for screening, each representing the depth, diversity, and vibrancy of independent cinema. These films explored a wide array of narratives—from social issues and human emotions to experimental storytelling—captivating audiences and sparking thoughtful discussions.

What truly set the 2021 festival apart was the prestigious gathering of distinguished cultural and cinematic personalities who graced the event. Esteemed figures such as Santwana Bordoloi, Eli Ahmed, Gautam Borah, Hem Bhai, Monikuntala Bhattacharya, Hemen Das and Biren Singha lent their presence, adding immense value and credibility to the festival. Their involvement not only elevated the stature of the event but also underscored the recognition of NIRI9 as a serious contributor to the promotion of quality cinema in the region.
